

CALL FOR NOMINATIONS CASI Senior Awards 2019

Canadian Aeronautics and Space Institute

CASI is currently seeking candidates for its 2019 Senior Awards

You can help us to recognize and celebrate the outstanding achievements of your colleagues

Nominations are invited for these four Senior Awards:

Trans-Canada (McKee) Trophy for air operations

McCurdy Award
for engineering

C.D. Howe Award
for policy and planning

Roméo Vachon Award
for technology

Nominations should respond to specific Award criteria by highlighting relevant aspects of the career and accomplishments of the candidate or team. The strength of a nomination increases with the number and stature of endorsements.

2018 Award recipients (l to r): David Kendall (C.D. Howe), Ian Glenn (Roméo Vachon), Chuck Ellis and Andy Litavniks (Trans-Canada), David Reist (McCurdy).

If you know someone or a team of individuals deserving of recognition as the recipient of one of our prestigious Awards, we strongly encourage you to submit a nomination.

Nomination deadline: 14 January 2019

You will find information about all the Awards and their criteria, lists of past recipients and nomination forms at
